The Scottish Society of Louisville

The Society was established in 1993 as a nonprofit organization to enrich the cultural lives of members in Kentucky and Indiana. It offers exposure to Scottish heritage and preserves, enhances, and fosters pride in our Scottish ancestry.

The Society sponsors many local and regional activities and has national affiliations with other Scottish organizations.

The Scottish Society of Louisville is a nonsectarian organization. There is no religious affiliation.

Our Mission

~ Conduct meetings and social events for members.

~ Provide specialized resources for artistic, historical and genealogical studies.

~ Award prizes for Scottish Highland dance, piping, drumming and athletic competitions.

~ Participate in public celebrations and events promoting Scottish and Celtic heritage, such as Scottish Highland Games, Worldfest on the Belvedere in Louisville, Kentucky and more.

~ Support public education programs in schools and other institutions.

Our Members

If you enjoy the sound of bagpipes, watching sheep dogs work, are curious about your family's history or want to learn more about Scottish history - the Scottish Society is for you!

The Society organizes a variety of activities for its members to participate each year and includes:

- Annual Burns Gala Dinner
- Regional Scottish Highland Games
- Kirking of the Tartans Services
- Annual Dinner and Auction to support the Heritage Fund

The new member packet includes a colorful cloisonné pin, welcome letter, nametag and lanyard.

New members are invited to join one of The Society's member interest groups or to start a new one! All members are encouraged to attend monthly meetings to network and to enjoy programs highlighting Scottish and Celtic Culture.

Meetings are held on the 4th Tuesday of each month - except December - beginning at 7:00 p.m. at Christ Church United Methodist (CCUM), located at 4614 Brownsboro Road, Louisville, KY. The Church sits west of I-264, off Brownsboro Road. Enter the church on the west side through the glass doors under the covered driveway.
